

HOT PROFILES, NO DUTCH SPEAKING REQUIRED!

The Netherlands is a great melting pot of different cultures. Many big corporations have their head offices in the Netherlands which has led to a shift in the requirements a candidate must have.

If you live or want to move to the Netherlands but don't speak Dutch (yet), don't let this stop you. Most vacancies we have do not require you to speak any Dutch.

OUR AGENCY

Our agency specialized in jobs in an international working environment mostly within the Dutch Trust Branch. Should you want to work in a different branch, our network is extended and I am confident that we can help you either way.

English is the spoken language for most of our clients, a fluency or good working knowledge in other languages, such as Chinese, Arabic, Russian, Spanish, or French will be a big plus point!

OUR CLIENTS

Our clients range from Global leading corporates to smaller, more intimate companies (1 – 50 FTE and above) We will see what fits you best.

All of our clients offer excellent career opportunities; the possibility to develop yourself and grow within the business in a great working environment. Great salaries and benefits. Most of our clients are based in Amsterdam but we are also recruiting for an important client in London.

If I have raised your interest, feel free to contact me. I am looking forward to getting further acquainted!
